Week 12 In week twelve, you will be tying the entire course together. Trish will briefly recap on each of the topics we’ve covered. You will gather around the table, have some tea, socialize, and if we choose to, you can share your experiences with using your new tools.

Most great cities have a central public gathering area, and Sandy is no exception. The City leveraged urban renewal funding to construct a public plaza across the street from City Hall and right next door to the Historical Society Museum on Hoffman Ave. The amphitheater-style plaza features a large open area, seating, vendor pads, landscaping, public restrooms and a water feature. Centennial Plaza is home to the City of Sandy's Annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony every winter, and the Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce's Music Fair and Feast (an open air weekend music festival) every summer.

When Cheryl Gill decided to write A Very Simple Estate Planning Guide That Goes Beyond Creating a Will, she had a simple focus in mind: “create a book that presents this topic in a way that everyone can understand and walks them through the process to reach their goal.” Cheryl’s years of experience in the real estate and legal worlds helped her create a book that discusses the following topics:

- What is estate planning and how do you get started?
- What are the three things everyone needs to have?
- Do you need a will or a trust?
- How do you avoid probate?
- What are the most common mistakes people make?

Can I protect my assets from Medicaid's recovery program? We will answer these questions and much more in this free one-hour educational seminar, "5-Common Strategies for Estate Planning," by CEO Jamie D. Worley of American Family Estate Preservation-Northwest (<http://www.afepinw.com>) in partnership with the Sandy Public Library (Sandy, Oregon). Someplace North, Someplace Wild
by Gary Brumbelow

Hoyt Community Room in the Sandy Library

Saturday, February 22, 2025

3:00pm – 4:00pm

As a youth, Gary loved ranch life: riding, checking cattle, doing chores. In his twenties, he spent two years in British Columbia in a region of huge mountain ranches.

He writes about a young Texan who pursues his dream of ranching in the Canadian wilderness. Cody lands a mountain ranch job, meets a beautiful girl, then out of the blue is arrested because he's been framed for murder. And the county attorney is crooked; he can't trust the system. What does he do?

That's what happens in Someplace North, Someplace Wild. When a young Texan is framed for murder, he has one week to track down the killer or forfeit his wilderness-ranch dream forever.

Join us to hear Gary discuss his journey of writing Someplace North, Someplace Wild.
